Bill-
Do I understand correctly that there will not be another QA/QC step performed by ERM on the Mine Site model following the true-up?

Tina, now that we have the Mine Site QA/QC review by ERM completed, could you please provide a brief description of what will be required for this model once we get the Plant Site model at the same place? This has been described as a final "true-up" in various forums.

I just want a descriptor of what will be entailed. Thanks. Bill.
