Copy that. Based on his feedback we will drive our plan. May cut back on house numbers etc but hopefully not. I hope Rob gets back to me soon, we cxd Indianapolis to move to Twin Cities....ST Paul alone wont cut it. If we can't get Minneapolis in the fold (we have researched there new mayor and chief and this is not automatic) we will have to press to city #3. Not our desire. Thx for everything. Gonna be a cold visit.

He thinks it will be a difficult task to find that many homes. He just sold a 26,000 sq foot home for 3 mil. The owner wanted 12 and he had 18 mil into it. That many homes furnished etc will be tough. He is going to start on it this week.

I cleared my whole week.

Feb 10th, I spoke to Jeff we should both be available that evening.
Feb 12th, My Assistant Chief is out of town, he is 100 % on board. I will be available to meet when MPLS is done training.
Feb 13th, good to go at St. Paul City Hall, with St. Paul Mayor and Chief, 1100 hours.

Most likely free for whatever comes up.
