

To: Rachel Stassen Berger, Pioneer Press
From: Matt Swenson, Press Secretary
Subject: Clarification on Viewing Video
Date: November 23, 2015

“The Bureau of Criminal Apprehension is part of the executive branch, and the Governor, as the chief executive of the state, has the responsibility to know as much as necessary about the investigation so he can make decisions regarding the public’s safety.”