Soccer Question

Mike,

I have finished reviewing the emails pertaining to your Data Practices Request of Major League Soccer. Eric Larson, our legal counsel, is still reviewing the material to make sure we do not release anything that is confidential.

In regards to your two questions:

- 1) We do not have a list of the MLS owners. The last we heard, McGuire was working on investors.
- 2) No, the Port has made no such request. If the City ever requested such a disclosure, we are not aware of it.
