Mike, Here's our version.

"Four of the Hennepin County Sheriff's deputies were deployed to Minot, Dakota, north Dakota along with six deputies from Dakota and five deputies from Washington counties as part of an emergency assistance management team to assist in the state of North Dakota and Minnesota. The Hennepin County deputy sheriff was also deployed to Minot, Dakota."

If we do not receive a reply to this inquiry I should refer to you with respect to your 44AC, as we could staff the query based on the public statements we've already made.

Let's think through something along the lines of:

Twenty nine Hennepin County Sheriff's Deputies were deployed to Morton County, North Dakota, along with six deputies from Lincoln and two deputies from Washington Counties, as part of an Emergency Assistance Management System, to border the states of North Dakota and Minnesota. The Hennepin County deputies were deployed from October 23 through December 1, 2016. No other requests for assistance between North Dakota and Minnesota exist at this time."

To Sheriff Stanek or a PIO in the Hennepin County Sheriff's Office,

I'm Chiara Sottile, a Producer for NBC Network News, writing to confirm that Hennepin County has sent law enforcement officers to Standing Rock to assist Morton County with the ongoing DAPL protest.

Can you confirm how many officers you have sent? Will you continue to do so?

I have also read that some officers have "turned in their badges" rather than continue to police the protest. Can you comment on this? Have any of your officers done so?

Thank you,
Chiara
