Dear Richard, hope you're well, this is Nico from NowThis (you shot a video with us on Trump ethics that's now up to 4.8 million views).

I'm not sure of your travel schedule but if you happen to be in NY, DC or SF and are interested in shooting something quickly on the latest AT&T/TimeWarner deal news, let me know! And thank you!

Hi Richard, I'm almost certain early afternoon will work but I've written the people who oversee our studio to confirm. I'll reach out again immediately when I hear back. Talk soon, Nico

Hi Richard, I'm a senior producer at NowThis News (in case you're not familiar, we are the largest video news publisher on both Facebook and Snapchat, averaging about 2 billion views monthly).

I just saw that you'll be in the San Francisco Bay Area this week. We would love to have you into our studio in San Francisco to shoot an interview if your schedule permits. (I've included some examples of recent studio shoots below.)

Do you happen to have any availability while you're here?

Thanks very much,
Nico
