Mr. Haines and Mr. Ehling,

I am writing to update you on the status of your public records request. As I previously mentioned, we collected approximately 4000 documents that fell within our search parameters. We have completed the review of the 4000 documents, and have a significant number of documents for your inspection. I previously told you I anticipated these would be ready for inspection today. However, I have been unable to find time to meet with my client, due to the extraordinarily busy schedule with the construction, the NCAA Final Four decision expected today, and the other business of the Authority. I have scheduled a time to consult my client, and expect that the documents will be ready for your review by November 21.

Regards,

Shannon L. Bjorklund
