RE: Notice of FOIA twenty-day statutory deadline violation/offer to assist.

Dear Coordinator,

On April 30th of 2010, I submitted a Freedom of Information Act request to your office. Please find a copy of the original request enclosed. I sent this document via certified mail on April 30th of this year. The return receipt that I received from the postal service indicates that your office accepted delivery on May 10th.

As you are aware, the Freedom of Information Act requires agencies to respond to FOIA requests within twenty business days, except in unusual circumstances as defined by the FOIA, and upon written notification. As of the date of this writing, over twenty business days have elapsed without a response from your office. Furthermore, I have not received written notice of an extension of the time period necessary to make a determination as required by 5 U.S.C. 552 (a)(6)(B)(i).

I am notifying you that I am not, at this time, exercising my options under FOIA to seek either administrative or judicial review of this matter in order to compel compliance with the time limits on the FOIA.

I do not wish to pursue these options at this point, because I feel a cooperative approach is better suited to revolving the situation. Therefore, I am offering to assist your office in any way possible to facilitate the prompt release of the requested materials. If you would like additional clarity regarding my request, please feel free to contact me at 651-335-2037.

Please let me know what I can do to aid your efforts to release the requested materials. While I do not intend to pursue administrative or judicial remedies at this time, I may revisit this decision if a response from your office is not promptly forthcoming.

Sincerely,
