John

I just received this schedule of meetings Twin Metals has set up for next week. You will definitely recognize many of the names.

Please give me a call when you have a few minutes.

Thanks

Hi Mark,

I hope this finds you well. Thank you again for your time in Ely recently.

All of us on the Twin Metals Minnesota team look forward to working with you in the months ahead and are prepared to provide you with any information needed for your decision-making.

We understand completely that you/Eastern States will have primary responsibility for decisions affecting this proposed project. We also think it important to provide short, introductory briefings at various levels throughout the Agency for this world-class project. I want you to know that as Peter and I request these briefings, at every turn, we have told people how much we value and respect your decision-making and how we expect and look forward to working with you on a regular basis throughout this process.

As you and I discussed in Ely, because this project may well involve issues of first impression, we expect legal and policy officials in Washington to have questions of us as you consider this project.

Therefore, to provide background-level information, we have requested briefings by Twin Metals executives with:

1. Steve Maloney (April 4, 1p edt)
2. Laura Davis, Steve Black and Neil Kornze (April 11, 10am edt)
3. Jack Haugrud and Karen Hawbecker joined by BLM Headquarters Solid Minerals Staff (April 11-12, time tbd)

Concurrently, we are also providing the same types of briefings with USFS officials in Milwaukee and Washington as well.

We will ensure that you are aware of, well in advance, any meetings we schedule with BLM. And, after these early-mid April briefings, we would very much welcome the opportunity to sit down with you (at a time and place of your convenience) to follow-up.

Please accept our thanks in advance for your time and efforts.

All best,
Andy
