Subject: Op-ed for The Washington Post?

Hi, Mychal. I left a phone message for you just now. Sorry to add to what must be an avalanche of media inquiries, but I'm an op-ed editor here at the Post and wanted to invite Mayor Frey to write an op-ed for the paper presenting his perspective about the dust-up this week with President Trump. I'm confident that readers here in Washington and across the country would welcome hearing from the Mayor.

Best,
Mark
