Hi Richard,

I'm working on a report about Jared Kushner and Ivanka Trump using a private Trump Organization helicopter to fly them to Vermont during the aftermath of Charlottesville. I'm wondering whether their use of a family business helicopter raises any red flags for you. Do you have a moment to comment this morning? I'm on an urgent deadline and would greatly appreciate hearing any of your thoughts.

Feel free to respond to this email or give me a call.

Best,
