Operator: 911 what's the address of the emergency? Hello? Hello? Caller?

Caller: Hello, hello.

Operator: Hi, this is 911.

Caller: NYP PROPERTY MANAGEMENT security patrol 1304 shots fired into my building, they're breeching my building and I need help.

Operator: What's the address of your building?

Caller: 1304, 1304 E. Lake ST. They're across the street approximately a dozen people.

Operator: Are they across the street from your unit or in your actual apartment?

Caller: They're, they're actually across the street from this property location.

Operator: And what are they doing?

Caller: They fired a couple shots at me towards the building and then they breeched the door. I managed to get the door secured but they're still surrounding the front of the building, attempting to light the building on fire, and attempting to get inside.

Operator: So, they're not across the street, they're actually at your address?

Caller: Yeah across the street and then coming across to engage (inaudible—both talking).

Operator: Okay, I need to know where they're at now, sir. Are they across the street or are they at your address?

Caller: Okay, I (inaudible—both talking). I cannot step back, I can't step outside anymore! (Inaudible—both talking) fucking (inaudible).

Operator: I'm not asking you to step outside.

Caller: I cannot give you a location at this time.

Operator: I'm not asking you to step outside.

Caller: I am un...I am unable to give you a location at this time.
